NOVEMBER CHARITY OF THE MONTH HOPE FOR JUSTICE

Thanks to everyone who supported Heather's quiz in the small hall on Friday. The amount raised will be announced.

DECEMBER CHARITY OF THE MONTH - SAVE THE CHILDREN

The choir is having a TRADITIONAL CHRISTMAS CAROL FEST after the family service at the beginning of December, and would like everyone to request their favourite Carol by writing it on the form which you will find on the notice boards in the church and the small hall.

CHURCHES TOGETHER There is a United Service at St Giles with St Matthew Church at 6 pm on Sunday, 26 November; also Community Carols on Saturday, 16 December in Scartho village outside the shops at 11 am.

DEVELOPING DISCIPLESHIP PROGRAMME

The Vocations Event was held on the 14 October and was felt by those attending to have been useful and enlightening. The next meeting will be the Values Event on Saturday, 20 January. Watch this space for further information.

TURKEY AND TINSEL LUNCH

This will be held on Saturday, 25 November in the large hall—12 noon for 12.30 pm. There will be a traditional turkey lunch and the cost is £12 for two courses (bring your own wine). There will also be a raffle. Tickets are available from the Social Committee and all proceeds go to church funds.

ADVANCE NOTICE In celebration of her 75th Birthday, Carole Rack has volunteered to do a WING WALK next year to raise funds for "Wish Upon A Star". A sponsorship form is available at the back of church, managed by Churchwarden Barbara and Treasurer Cath. Thanking you in anticipation.

REGULAR DONATIONS FOR THE WORK AND UPKEEP OF ST GILES

If anyone is a tax-payer and is not yet on our Gift Aid scheme, can we urge you to sign up! It allows us to claim another 25% on top of your donation—really worthwhile additional income for St Giles. Please get in touch with Cath Gregory if you have any questions at all. Thank you.
